

Fonthill Park Cricket Club Dinner Quiz 2025

Use the clues to find the answers. This quiz does not contain nuts or flashing lights, but may contain anagrams.

Use the clues to find the answers. This quiz does not contain hats or flashing lights, but may contain anagrams.
Q's 1-37 WHO? (FPCC members)		Q's 38-43 WHAT or WHERE ?		Q's 44-52 WHEN or HOW MUCH/MANY? (in order)
1	A blind clerk reorganised.
2	Chair in city career.
3	Unjumble his mad throw to find FPCC player who inspired the invention of a new adjective in the Fonthill WhatsApp lexicon.
4	Jams are holy, mixed, former top fielder lifted this year's Paul Gahan Memorial Trophy.
5	Panthera uncia
6	Now an ex-Fonthill player in no cranberry hitherto.
7	No more wee, another way.
8	Muddled by his journals.
9	Confused town-born monkey,
10	If not for his Scottish first name he could be mistaken for a West Indian fast bowler.
11	Combine choice between type of cat and Dagenham made car .
12	Found in rimmed cog kit.
13	Combine the name of a big bell and a type of key.
14	Barman in me joints.
15	Contained in eaten caterpillar .
16	Person of curious origins who did ~8 miles of mowing on 27 June, according to Strava.
17	Re-mix jig and thrones or end this jargon .
18	A manly mud kick reformed.
19	Matinée idol most famous for the Adventures of Robin Hood 1955-59.
20	Club Member of the Year 2016 and 2021.
21	Fish common in seas around British Isles shares name with concussed author. Contained in a night swim.
22	In the Big Bash, Fonthill's No 1 " went expensively for 16 off one over without batters troubling the boundary, thanks to some exceptional running " .
23	Onetime Whizzer and Chips chief rural cricket correspondent, now reduced to minor public-speaking engagements.
24	Holy fried egg, scrambled.
25	Scored a chanceless fifty for the Humphrey Stone XI against Fonthill in July.
26	FPCC No. 18.
27	Princely namesake and pedestrian.
28	Concealed in ideal plans.
29	FPCC's own tick doctor.
30	Tall, wetland, grass-like plant after 13 th century king.
31	Verdant lion.
32	Combine X-factor judge with head of religious order to find Legends organiser.
33		34		35		36
37	Re-processed tank-gherkin. Non-player, bill-payer.
38	What was the longest Big Bash team called?
39	What is the cricket equipment made from Boron and Astatine?
40	Sunday 10 August opponents: type of dog from Sussex.
41	Where was FPCC's highest ever total scored?
42	What is sometimes used by creative captains: an amalgam of phosphorus, sulphur, nitrogen and iodine?
43	Ground equipment and fielding position. Plural.
44	Total number of scheduled Weekend AWAY matches 2025				In numerical order
45	Price of a pint of draft Stone Daisy Park Bottom at FPCC this summer.
46	Number of lights on the FPCC veranda
47	Record largest number of slips in the cordon set by legendary opponents in July.
48	Number of Club home games listed in the 2025 fixture card (including 1 Ranston Cup game) = number of paid-up FPCC adult members this year (excluding life members).
49	FPCC and Shroton tied on what score after 20 overs in the Ranston Cup match?
50	Record highest Club score (- - - for 9).
51	First date on the (back of the) FPCC scoreboard.
52	In what year was the Tait Gallery suite of benches on the top boundary opened?

Fonthill Park Cricket Club Dinner Quiz 2025

Use the clues to find the answers. This quiz does not contain nuts or flashing lights, but may contain anagrams.

Q's 1-37 WHO? (FPCC members)				Q's 38-43 WHAT or WHERE ?		Q's 44-52 WHEN or HOW MUCH/MANY? (in order)
1	A blind clerk reorganised.					Dan Brickell
2	Chair in city career.					Eric Tracey
3	Unjumble his mad throw to find FPCC player who inspired the invention of a new adjective in the Fonthill WhatsApp lexicon.					Howard Smith
4	Jams are holy, mixed, former top fielder lifted this year's Paul Gahan Memorial Trophy.					Ashley Major
5	Panthera uncia					Freddie Power
6	Now an ex-Fonthill player in no cranberry hitherto.					Archie Thornton-Berry
7	No more wee, another way.					Ewen Moore
8	Muddled by his journals.					John Salisbury
9	Confused town-born monkey,					Tom Kenyon Brown
10	If not for his Scottish first name he could be mistaken for a West Indian fast bowler.					Calum Marshall
11	Combine choice between type of cat and Dagenham made car .					Tom Pickford
12	Found in rimmed cog kit.					Tim Mockridge
13	Combine the name of a big bell and a type of key.					Ben Allen
14	Barman in me joints.					Tim Jones
15	Contained in eaten caterpillar .					Peter Catarinella
16	Person of curious origins who did ~8 miles of mowing on 27 June, according to Strava.					Bexi Harris
17	Re-mix jig and thrones or end this jargon .					John Grinstead
18	A manly mud kick reformed.					Malick Kudmany
19	Matinée idol most famous for the Adventures of Robin Hood 1955-59.					Richard Green
20	Club Member of the Year 2016 and 2021.					Dave Roberts
21	Fish common in seas around British Isles shares name with concussed author. Contained in a night swim.					Sam Whiting
22	In the Big Bash, Fonthill's No 1 "went expensively for 16 off one over without batters troubling the boundary, thanks to some exceptional running" .					Henry Comyn
23	Onetime Whizzer and Chips chief rural cricket correspondent, now reduced to minor public-speaking engagements.					Sam Peters
24	Holy fried egg, scrambled.					Leigh Godfrey
25	Scored a chanceless fifty for the Humphrey Stone XI against Fonthill in July.					Ollie Senneck
26	FPCC No. 18.					Teddy Green
27	Princely namesake and pedestrian.					Harry Walker
28	Concealed in ideal plans.					Ed Aspinall
29	FPCC's own tick doctor.					Jolyon Medlock
30	Tall, wetland, grass-like plant after 13 th century king.					John Reed
31	Verdant lion.					Leo Green
32	Combine X-factor judge with head of religious order to find Legends organiser.					Simon Prior
33	Tom Mitchell		34	Ed Hobbs		35	Jonny Belk		36	Mark Mikurenda
37	Re-processed tank-gherkin. Non-player, bill-payer.									Karen Knight
38	What was the longest Big Bash team called?									Grosvenor Googlies
39	What is the cricket equipment made from Boron and Astatine?									Bat
40	Sunday 10 August opponents: type of dog from Sussex.									Wolfhounds
41	Where was FPCC's highest ever total scored?									Chilmark
42	What is sometimes used by creative captains: an amalgam of phosphorus, sulphur, nitrogen and iodine?									spin
43	Ground equipment and fielding position. Plural.									Covers
44	Total number of scheduled Weekend AWAY matches 2025									In numerical order	2
45	Price of a pint of draft Stone Daisy Park Bottom at FPCC this summer.										£3.50
46	Number of lights on the FPCC veranda										5
47	Record largest number of slips in the cordon set by legendary opponents in July.										8
48	Number of Club home games listed in the 2025 fixture card (including 1 Ranston Cup game) = number of paid-up FPCC adult members this year (excluding life members).										42
49	FPCC and Shroton tied on what score after 20 overs in the Ranston Cup match?										145
50	Record highest Club score (- - - for 9).										317
51	First date on the (back of the) FPCC scoreboard.										2009
52	In what year was the Tait Gallery suite of benches on the top boundary opened?									2021	